Total Commission to be paid to iApartments :

Management Company acknowledges iApartments is listed on the application and agrees to pay iApartments a locator commission. The commission shall be earned if:

- 1. The rental prospect referred by iApartments signs a lease as resident, for occupancy of the unit at that property.
2. Such rental prospect actually moves into the unit defined in the lease. This transmission confirms that iApartments will receive the referral commission for the client (which is in compliance with TREL A and TREC for Texas customers). Once confirmation is received from complex that complex will pay the referral fee. iApartments will provide a free two hour move for the client to the unit specified in the lease.
3. Payments not received and have to be filed in court will be subject to late fees (1.5% per month), collection fees, attorneys fees and liens. (Minimum of $200.00)
